

KENDRIYA VIDYALAYA SANGATHAN, KOLKATA REGION

PRE-BOARD EXAMINATION- 2025-2026

Marking Scheme

CLASS- X

MAX MARKS- 80

SUB- ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

TIME- 3 HOURS

SECTION A- READING

1.

- I. Ever-increasing population, rapid urbanization, and industrial advancement are creating man-made problems that are threatening the existence of living being.
- II. Because of low specific weight, low thermal and electrical conductivity, and high durability, reasonable pricing, etc.
- III. to attain certain desired properties as they work as additives.
- IV. The use of plastic simplifies life, but it also creates a dangerous waste problem for the environment and living things.
- V. Major: primary
- VI. True
- VII. Energy Recovery, Landfilling, reduce, reuse, recycle, Innovative Technologies & Alternatives, Policy and Public Awareness etc
- VIII. A

2.

- I. c)
- II. b)
- III. because of the immense volume of oxygen its vast plant life produces through photosynthesis, and its crucial role as a major carbon sink, absorbing large amounts of carbon dioxide and helping to regulate the global climate.
- IV. The Amazon rainforest faces several severe threats, primarily driven by human activities and climate change, leading to extensive deforestation and ecosystem degradation / any other points mentioned in the text.
- V. d)
- VI. Establishment of protected areas, sustainable forest management, and international cooperation to combat deforestation etc.
- VII. Disrupted

SECTION B- GRAMMAR AND WRITING

3.

- a. Realizing
- b. Services is- services are

- c. If he would allow him to issue that book that day.
 - d. Had fallen
 - e. Has
 - f. That
 - g. Larissa asked why she did not join her for dinner that night.
 - h. Thinks- think
 - i. Should not
 - j. Will have rung
 - k. The little
 - l. Is
4. format- 1 mark
Content- 3 marks
Accuracy-1 mark

OR

- format- 1 mark
Content- 3 marks
Accuracy-1 mark
5. content-2 marks
Organization of ideas- 2 marks
Accuracy- 1 mark

OR

- content-2 marks
Organization of ideas- 2 marks
Accuracy- 1 mark

SECTION C- LITERATURE

6. A.
- a) The narrator's attitude toward the diary is one of intimacy and confidence, viewing it as a silent, non-judgmental friend and a necessary emotional outlet.
 - b) The narrator's decision to "stay where I was, brooding" indicates a state of deep dejection, listlessness, and introversion.
 - c) The narrator's mention of not sharing her diary "unless I should ever find a real friend" implies a very high standard for what constitutes a "real friend," encompassing deep trust, total acceptance, and an unbreakable bond.
 - d) iii)
- B.
- i. c)
 - ii. "My spirits rose" and "And the smile came by itself, without any effort," indicating his relief and pleasure.

- iii. irrefutable evidence of the narrator's theft and Anil's silent, non-confrontational knowledge of that theft, coupled with an offer of silent forgiveness and trust.
- iv. The two smiles represent the contrast between Hari's old, manipulative self and his new, genuinely remorseful and changed character from a deceitful, calculated character to one experiencing genuine gratitude and moral awakening.

7. A.

- i. d)
- ii. the materialistic reality of the adult world, where people are focused on owning things, and where loss is an inevitable part of life.
- iii. Metaphor
- iv. signifies that money has a superficial, transactional value that cannot compensate for genuine emotional loss or replace sentimental attachments.

B.

- i. suggests that the boughs are weak, disoriented, slow-moving, and in a state of slow recovery after being confined for a long time.
- ii. c)
- iii. by creating a sense of drama, empathy, and urgency.
- iv. Barrier

8.

I. Unique Challenges

- Environmental Needs and Maintenance
- Wild Instincts and Behaviour
- Health and Legal Issues

Unique Rewards

- Unique Playfulness and Entertainment
- Deep Emotional Connection
- Connection to Nature
- Sense of Accomplishment

II. Complete Calmness and Tranquillity

- Freedom and Unrestricted Movement
- Solitude and Independence
- A State of Blissful Relaxation
- Escape from Reality

III. Arguments for Irresponsibility:

Ignored the obvious danger signs (storm clouds).

Ignored the ATC advice to return to Paris.

Prioritized getting home for breakfast over safety.

Risked his life and the plane.

Arguments for Bravery:

Faced a life-threatening situation and kept his composure.

Followed the mysterious plane, which required faith and courage when all else failed

- Determination to Reach Destination.
- IV. Mimics Natural Movement.
Emphasis on Brevity and Immediacy.
Sense of Freedom and Flexibility.
Silent and Stealthy Imagery.
Personification and Calmness.
Subdued Atmosphere.
- V. The Absurdity of the Conflict's Origin (oxen meadows, the dogs).
Escalation and Hyperbole.
Forgetting the Core Purpose.
Critique of Social Priorities.

9.

- I. Appreciation of the Invitation.
Acceptance of the Dress Money.
Wearing Modest Accessories.
Avoiding the Borrowed "Diamond" Necklace.
Immediate Honesty After the Loss.
- II. Horace's Assumption
The Reality of the Situation
He is consequently arrested for the actual lady of the house's robbery, and ends up serving a prison sentence, working as an assistant librarian
- III. Intriguing Introduction.
Puzzling Disappearance.
Hooking the Reader.
Tangible Proof of Invisibility.
Revealing the Action.
Grounding the Unbelievable.

10. A. Central metaphor for actively and consciously removing the source of one's suffering, mental anguish, and emotional pain.

Mindfulness and Conscious Breathing

Journaling for Emotional Release

Practicing Gratitude

Seeking Perspective and Action

Seeking Support

OR

B. Valli's Appearance (A Child)

Valli's Reality (Mature and Independent)

The Conductor's Recognition

The Irony of the Interaction: The conductor, by calling her "madam," ironically confirms her mature "reality" while outwardly commenting on her childish "appearance" in that role. This interaction shows that true maturity is often reflected in behaviour and actions, not just age.

11. A. Succumbing to Panic and Fear

Lack of Foresight and Suspicion
Overconfidence in His Own Authority (Initially)
Underestimation of Ausable
Gullibility

OR

B. Gender Bias and Treatment of Girls

Her parents believed no good man would want her.
The "Dowry" Factor
Her father, Ramlal, was extremely anxious that she would remain a spinster all her life
The fact that they overlooked significant flaws in the groom clearly indicates their desperation.
Relief at "Any" Offer